Poitiers, France

REGULATIONS - INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION 2021

1 / Festival Filmer le travail

Filmer le travail international film festival consists in opening a space for discussion and exchange between movie directors, scientists, workers and the audience, about work and cinema.

The festival promotes new perspectives of filmmaking through movies about work, working conditions and social themes. It is composed of retrospectives, conferences, meetings and an international competition.

2 / Registration conditions

The 2021 international competition is open to :

- films produced after the 1st of January 2019, except films already submitted to the selection committee in previous editions
- documentary films only
- documentary films about work/working conditions, including gestures, social relationships, personal experience, collective representations and related themes (unemployment, job search, training, etc)
- no duration limit

The selection committee won't accept :

- corporate or promotional films, TV reports or TV magazines
- long documentary films that have been commercially exploited in France before the festival

3 / Submission

Each documentary must be exclusively registered on the Docfilmdepot platform : www.docfilmdepot.com

Submission fee : 5€ + cost associated to the use of the Docfilmdepot platform.

The deadline for submission is the 4th of October 2020

For the non french-speaking movies, the OV (original version) with french subtitles will be always preferred to the OV with english subtitles.

The selection results will be known by the beginning of january 2021 at the latest.

The directors, producers, distributors of all films selected must commit to not communicate the results of the selection before the official announcement.

4 / Selection and requested material

The screening copies must be in good condition and arrive in Poitiers by 15 January 2021.

Participants are responsible for the shipping costs of their films to the festival. The festival will be responsible for the return shipping.

Selected films should exist on HD files, DCP or Blu-ray. They will be screened in DCP. When screened in DCP, a back-up Blu-ray copy must be provided.

The films must be in original version. French subtitles are required for non french-speaking films.

An original version with english subtitles could be requested for the french-speaking films.

5 / Selection and screening fees

There will not be any screening fees for all films selected in the international competition.

Directors, producers and distributors must commit to not remove their film once the selection is confirmed.

6 / Media Library

In case of selection, the films can be proposed at the media library of the festival, during the event.

7 / Promotional material

If the documentary is selected, high definition photographs of the film should be sent to the festival. These photographs can be used for all communication media for the festival (digital and paper).

Short excerpts (lasting less than three minutes) may be used to promote the festival and its competition films, for the festival's communication (TV and Internet) and for the trailer of the festival.

The winning films must commit to mention their selection on any promotional material with the festival credits Filmer le travail 2021
